HUSKERS REGISTER HEAVILY AT AMES

Wind Up Game on the Big End of 21-to-0, with Chamberlain the Star Again.

STIEMMERS PLAY CONSISTENTLY

By FRED S. HUNTER. AMES, Ia., Oct. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Playing the brand of football that brooks no opposition, "Jumbo" Stiemmer's Cornhuskers turned loose on the Iowa Aggies in the second quarter of the annual game staged here today and rushed three touchdowns over the Aggie goal line. Corey booted all three goals and the final score stood 21 to 0, Nebraska.

In the first, third and fourth periods the Hawkeye farmers held their own. They played good football and, while it was largely a defensive game, the Huskers could not penetrate the defense at the critical times. But in the second quarter Nebraska was supreme. The Aggies never had a chance. When the period opened Nebraska had the ball on Ames' thirty-two-yard line. The first play called resulted in a twenty-seven-yard run by Chamberlain. The big Husker end stumbled through a broken field to the five-yard line. Rutherford gained two yards bucking the line and Reese gathered in one. Chamberlain made the remaining distance around right end for a touchdown and Corey kicked the goal.

Report to Punting. Corey kicked off to Moss after the touchdown. The Aggies encountered a stone wall when they attempted to run the ball and were forced to punt. The Huskers also punted after Corey was downed on his own five-yard mark. Again the Aggies tried to gain, but their attempts were futile. Moss punted to Rutherford and Dick gathered in the pigskin on his own twenty-five-yard line and returned it thirty yards to Ames' forty-five-yard line. The play once more called for the ever dependable Chamberlain, and Guy went around right end, broke across the field back of the Ames line and ran forty-five yards for his second touchdown. Corey once more kicked the goal.

Again Mr. Chamberlain. Rutherford received the kick on Ames' forty-five-yard mark. Chamberlain broke away for thirty yards around right end, the big end had no trouble in skirting the Ames' flank. Reese lost five yards, but Rutherford was on the job with a twenty-yard run around left end which placed the ball within one foot of the Aggie goal. Corey attempted to duck through center, but failed. Rutherford carried the ball over a second later, but Nebraska was off side and was penalized five yards, thus making it necessary to try all over again. Corey gave the ball to Captain Rutherford again and Dick made good. He put the ball over for the third touchdown and Corey's goal made the total count for Nebraska, 21; Ames, 0. Chamberlain was again the Cornhusker star just as he was in the Notre Dame game. The big Nebraska end played an irrefragable game; he easily proved that he is the greatest open field runner in the west today with or without interference. Chamberlain circled the Aggie ends for great gains. He carried the ball fully half of the time and only once when the line gave away was the thrown for a loss. But Chamberlain was not the only star.

Riddell Stars, Too. Riddell, who was baffled by the Notre Dame interference a week ago, came into his own and played a great defensive game. Few gains were made around his flank and he broke into some Aggie plays before they were started. Shaw, who worked next to Riddell played a great game and Earl Abbott once more showed Nebraska followers that he is a guard of all Missouri valley calibre. Loren Casey put up a good battle at quarter, he used good judgment all the way through and his tackling in a possible Ames touchdown.

Despite the fact he has an injured leg giving him trouble, Captain Dick Rutherford played one of the best games of his career. He insisted on starting the game and he refused to allow Stiemmer to remove him even though his presence was not needed after the second quarter. Ellsworth Moser and Jimmy Gardner, two Omaha players, played good games, the former being a power at center and Jimmy subbing quite successfully for Reese in the backfield.

Husker Fans Scared Once. The Aggies threw a scare into the little band of loyal Cornhusker rooters who came over for the contest. After Corey kicked off to Moss on Ames' thirty-yard mark Aldrich tucked the pigskin under his wing and romped sixty yards through the field before little Casey dragged him down on Nebraska's eight-yard line. Cornhusker supporters felt a bit shaky after that run. They plunged the line for three yards, but the Husker line held tight. After two attempts to bore through Ames tried a forward pass and the pass failed, giving Nebraska a touchback and the ball.

Nebraska started a rush down the field, with Chamberlain, Reese and Rutherford carrying the ball, and they took it to the Cyclones' twenty-yard mark. But here a forward pass was intercepted and Stiemmer's men lost their chance for a touchdown in the initial quarter.

See-Saw in Third Period. During the third period the ball saw-sawed back and forth in the middle of the field, with Nebraska and Ames making short distances, but neither team could gain consistently and was often forced to punt.

Nebraska showed considerable speed in the fourth quarter and might have put over another touchdown or two if open play methods had been attempted, but evidently the Aggie school team on their lead was sufficient and it would be of no use to expose open field plays and shift formations for the benefit of Kansas and Iowa scouts in the grandstand.

CREIGHTON RUNS AROUND YANKTON

Piles Up Forty-Five Tallies and Holds the Yanks to Goose-Egg.

YANKTON, S. D., Oct. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Creighton easily defeated Yankton's lighter team here today, the score being 45 to 0. The Omaha boys worked the forward pass consistently for great gains and victory was due to this as much as to any other reason.

After ten minutes of play Creighton scored a touchdown, but failed to kick goal, the first period ending 5 to 0. In the second period Creighton touched off three more touchdowns, but only got one goal kick. In the third Captain Kniffen was taken out with a broken shoulder and Brennan and Platts were sent in as Omaha subs.

Brennan in the last quarter made a spectacular forty-yard dash down the field for a touchdown. His work and that of Nigro were the star contributions of the afternoon.

Officials—Referee: Carberry; Umpire: Hoopes; Springfield, Summary: Touchdowns: Nigro (2); Platts (2); Brennan (2); Hale.

GOPHERS TIE WITH ILLINOIS, 6 TO 6

Minnesota Throws Away Opportunities in Game Which is Hard Fought Throughout.

ILLINOI HOLD FOES FOR DOWNS

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Oct. 30.—The Universities of Illinois and Minnesota football teams played a 4 to 6 tie game here today. In the fourth quarter, victory seemed well in the grasp of Minnesota when on the fourth down, on a wild pass by Watson, the Illinois center, the ball rolled down to the six-yard line of Illinois and a Minnesota player covered it. Minnesota advanced to the one-foot line, but the Illinois line held the visitors for downs and Macomber punted out of danger.

Minnesota pushed the ball over the Illinois line for its score with only a few minutes to play. In the second quarter Illinois strengthened its defense and Halstrom's long sprint made it possible for them to score.

Clark and Macomber were stars for Illinois, with Halstrom showing well and Klein, Pogue's understudy, performing in excellent fashion. Brennan and Applegram were removed because of injuries.

Wyman and Long were the best ground gainers for the visitors. Forward passes they made repeated gains for Minnesota. There was an absence of spectacular plays.

Pogue, Illinois star halfback, appeared on the sidelines, but did not participate. Game by Quarters. Minnesota outplayed the Illinois in the initial quarter. Starting from the kick off the Gophers matched to the five-yard line before being held. Long failed on a drop kick, but Hauser of Minnesota intercepted a forward pass and the Minnesota offense gained steadily until Sprafkin went over for a touchdown. The attempt at goal failed. Score: Minnesota, 6; Illinois, 0.

Illinois tied the count early in the second period, scoring on a favored pass. Macomber to Clark. Macomber passed the goal. The Illinois defense stiffened and held the Gophers beyond the center line throughout the latter part of the period. Minnesota was penalized for holding just as the half ended.

In the third period Minnesota opened up its forward pass attack, but after being within scoring distance Wyman threw well across the goal line and only a touchback resulted. By gaining on punts and spilling Minnesota's pass the Illinois gave Macomber a chance for a tie goal from the forty-yard mark, but he missed. The period ended without scoring.

Last Period Hard Fought. The last period was desperately fought. A bad pass from center on a punt gave Minnesota the ball on the Illinois six-yard line. The Gophers' backs plunged to within a foot of the goal and then a fumble gave Illinois the ball. Macomber punted out of danger, but for the rest of the game Minnesota forced the pace of the game. Watson had the ball on with forward passes and had the ball on the twenty-five-yard line when the game ended. Final score: Minnesota, 6; Illinois, 6.

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 30.—Drake came from behind with a magnificent rally in a game with Washington university here this afternoon and won by a score of 15 to 10. Failure to Kick Goal Results in One of Greatest Upsets in Recent Conference History.

TWO TEAMS DO MUCH FUMBLING

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—In one of the greatest football upsets of recent conference history, Chicago today claimed victory of Wisconsin, 14 to 13. A missed goal from touchdown with Eber Simpson kicking, accounted for the one-point difference, for each team scored two touchdowns.

The Maroon advanced the Badgers in the finer points of the game and out-kicked them. Both teams, however, were guilty of bad fumbling. Wisconsin had far the better of the forward passes. Albert Cahn, a newcomer, in midway ranks, distinguished himself at half, and Chicago's latent power was shown in the speed of the other substitute backs, Byers and Meyers were stars, but the middle positions were not as well taken care of as expected.

A costly fumble by Russell paved the way for the first Wisconsin touchdown, and the second was the result of a fifty-yard run by Simpson. Great dashes by Flood and Gordon gave the Maroons their first touchdown. The second came in the third period on a Wisconsin fumble, which a Chicagoan recovered on the Badgers' ten-yard line. Russell plunged over with the winning score. Shull's steady toe gained the one point that was needed.

Wisconsin First to Score. Wisconsin scored early in the first period, when Russell fumbled a punt, the visitors carrying the ball to the five-yard line. Smith scored a touchdown and Koch kicked goal. Chicago took the offensive then, but couldn't get within scoring distance, although keeping the ball in Wisconsin territory the rest of the period. Score: Wisconsin, 7; Chicago, 0.

Chicago evened the count early in the second period, when Flood tore through for twenty yards and Gordon scored on a forty-yard run. Shull kicked goal. The Badgers came right back. Simpson ran the kickoff back fifty yards, then threw a forward pass to Byers, who scored. Simpson missed goal. Score: Wisconsin, 13; Chicago, 7.

Most of Chicago suffered a broken knee and Larson took his place. Neither team could gain consistently in the remainder of the period, although Byers made several dashing spurts.

A fumble spoiled Wisconsin's next chance to score after Meyers' long run, a forward pass and a penalty had put the ball on Chicago's five-yard line. The ball rolled. Chicago recovering on a thirty-yard mark. The Maroons advanced to the Wisconsin fifteen-yard line, where a pass went wrong. Stag sent in several substitutes. Chicago recovered a fumble on Wisconsin's ten-yard line and Russell scored. Shull kicked goal. Score: Chicago, 14; Wisconsin, 13.

Chicago Fumbles Again. Chicago started to fumble again in the last period and Wisconsin attacked. From the thirty-yard mark, E. Simpson missed a field goal. The Maroon backs then got the offensive working until they were again spotted by fumbles. A punt was again spotted by Chicago advancing, the ball being in Wisconsin possession on its own ten-yard line, when the game ended. Score: Chicago, 14; Wisconsin, 13.

Invaders from West, Represented as Players of Open Game, Use Battering Ram Attack.

ABRAHAM LEADS THE OFFENSE

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 30.—Smashing the local line by a surprise attack, Oregon defeated Omaha High this afternoon, 9 to 0. Omaha opened up with forward pass formations, but could not do much, as York's line smothered them. York played desperately to win on forward passes and two in succession netted thirty-five yards. York was playing a great defensive game, and forced Omaha to punt, when York again adopted the old smashing game and started for a touchdown.

With J. Conway and Glasser battering their way through the line they reached Omaha's ten-yard line, when Omaha braced and held brilliantly for three downs. On the fourth down Conway broke through left tackle for the only touchdown of the game. York failed to kick goal.

Forward Pass Works Well. York kicked off to Omaha again and they opened up with all they had. Neville and Verock here brought the crowd to their feet by brilliant runs. Their forward pass was working beautifully and carried the ball forty-five yards, to York's eighteen-yard line. Here they were penalized fifteen yards for holding, and J. Conway intercepted a forward pass.

York again used their battering rams, Kosticky and J. Conway, Glasser and Weber. Omaha's line was showing the effects of the contest hammering, and the secondary defense was called upon to stop every play. York was headed for another touchdown, but time was called with the ball in York's possession on Omaha's six-yard line.

For Omaha, the whole backfield played a brilliant game, but York's heavier line broke through repeatedly and spilled the plays. Beard, the much-touted center, was clearly outclassed by his husky opponent, H. Myers, the all-state center of last year.

Stars of York Team. J. Conway, Kosticky, Glasser and Weber each played a great game. The game was fast and clean with no wrangling whatever by either team.

The lineup: OREGON. Quarterback, R. E. L. E.; Running Back, R. E. L. E.; Fullback, R. E. L. E.; Halfback, R. E. L. E.; Tailback, R. E. L. E.; End, R. E. L. E.; Tackle, R. E. L. E.; Guard, R. E. L. E.; Center, R. E. L. E.; Punter, R. E. L. E.; Kicker, R. E. L. E.; Linebacker, R. E. L. E.; Defensive Back, R. E. L. E.; Offensive Back, R. E. L. E.

Hoosiers and Southerners Tie. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 30.—McIntosh, aided by perfect interference, wiggled the length of the field on the first kick-off, scoring Indiana's only touchdown in the game with Washington and Lee here today, which resulted in a 7 to 7 tie. In the second period the Virginians by a series of well-executed forward passes tied the score.

PERU PILES UP BIG SCORE AGAINST TARKIO

Local High Line, and Score is the Result.

PERU, Neb., Oct. 30.—(Special.)—Peru won from Tarkio Friday, 40 to 14. The ball was in Peru's territory a great share of the time, but luck seemed against the Missourians.

The first touchdown was made by Peru after five minutes of playing, and again before the close of the first quarter. Craig for Peru made a drop kick. Either team seemed able to make line smashes at will, but the great effort was the forward pass.

In the second quarter, Huston of Peru intercepted a forward pass and ran fifty-five yards for a touchdown and later kicked goal. Tarkio also by a great spurt made a touchdown and kicked goal.

In the third quarter, White, the star full back, entered the play for Tarkio and although sick, played a stellar game, practically making a touchdown by himself. Another touchdown and a drop kick added ten more to Peru's side.

In the fourth quarter, Peru, by line smashes, end runs and forward passes, made another touchdown and kicked goal.

The officials were: Umpire: Withrow of Tarkio; Referee: Gowdy of Tarkio; Head Linesman: Hilde of Lincoln; Field umpire: Cowel of Peru.

Grover Alexander and Joey Stecher in Bowlers' Guise

Joe Stecher, Nebraska's wrestling idol, and Grover Alexander, Nebraska's best ball delly, will both appear in Omaha soon in the guise of champion bowlers.

The two famous sportsmen have commented to come here to participate in the big midwest bowling tourney. Each is a good bowler and confidently expects to carry off some honors. Gene Melady is organizing a team to be entered in the tourney and it is probable that both Stecher and Alexander will roll with him.

DARTMOUTH CONQUERS AMHERST IN FINAL HALF

AMHERST, Mass., Oct. 30.—Dartmouth defeated Amherst college today, 36 to 0. Amherst held the heavy Green team on nearly even terms for the first half, but weakened under Dartmouth's line plunging in the last two periods. The Green also had the advantage in punting and easily outplayed their opponents.
